

Instead of Summoning Embassies, Nests of Terrorism, to the Ministry, They Should Be Deported Immediately

News:

Turkey: The ambassadors of 9 countries, including the countries that suspended the work of their consulates in Turkey under the pretext of the threat of terrorist acts, were summoned to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs. The ambassadors were told that "Such simultaneous activities do not constitute a proportionate and prudent approach." (TRT Haber, 03.02.2023)

Comment:

The ambassadors and representatives of The Netherlands, Switzerland, Sweden, England, Germany, Belgium, France and Italy, which issued security warnings to Turkey and then temporarily closed some of their diplomatic and consular representations, were summoned to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs. These warnings were issued in order to put pressure on the elections and create an atmosphere of fear in the public opinion. Instead of giving a real and appropriate response, Turkey, as always, gave a weak and cowardly reaction to the European countries, especially the UK.

As it is known, embassies of small and large foreign countries in Islamic countries, including Turkey, are terror nests and are the brains and most important supporters of terrorism. Foreign countries carry out terrorist acts against civilians in Islamic countries and their contacts with terrorist groups through embassies and ambassadors. The fact that they warned of terrorism against Turkey is the best proof that they are in contact with terrorist groups, that they are directing them and that they are getting information through their agents. It is impossible for a country like Turkey not to know this. Minister Çavuşoğlu said, "We think that these closures are purposeful." This statement is an indication that Turkey knows this.

In the meantime, instead of reacting recklessly and ruthlessly and instead of expelling their ambassadors from the country and closing their embassies, which are terror hotspots, it suits timid, cowardly and dependent countries like Turkey to react cowardly to European countries, and especially the USA, who produce, feed and stimulate terrorism, and organize terrorist acts in Turkey for years. While the safety and well-being of its people should be among its priorities, it is nothing but leaking the summoning of embassies to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and using it as a domestic policy material. If the safety of his people were among his priorities, he would immediately declare them persona non grata and ask them to leave the country, instead of summoning the embassies of terrorist countries to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and convincing them that there is no such threat or asking them for information and documents regarding the terrorist threat they warned about. The fact that it did not retaliate proves that Turkey's reaction was a cowardly one.

Today, the only reason why the colonial infidel countries carry out operations against our country, feed and stimulate terrorist organizations, and disrespect the ummah's sanctity and dignity, is the weak responses of the treacherous and agent coward agent rulers in Islamic countries. If they had responded bravely and valiantly, embassies in terror could not act arbitrarily and interfere in the internal affairs of the country. In short, the courage of the cowardly colonial Kufr (infidel) countries stems from the cowardice of the agent rulers in Islamic countries.
