

Trying the Tried is Foolish

News:

Speaking at a joint press conference with Jordanian Foreign Minister Ayman Safadi, Foreign Minister Hakan Fidan said, "We once again strongly condemn the despicable attack on the Holy Quran in Sweden and the fact that this attack was condoned despite our warnings." (Hürriyet)

Comment:

How many times is the Quran being burnt under the supervision of the Swedish police? It is obvious that the weak and dishonourable reactions of the traitorous rulers in the Islamic countries every time the Quran is burnt, instead of preventing the enemies of Islam from their outrages, they are even more inflamed and continue their outrages. In such a situation, the continuation of useless and empty condemnations by the traitorous rulers in the Islamic world, including Turkey, is nothing but cheating and betraying the Islamic Ummah. The fact that those who claim to love Allah and who hold the Holy Qur'an in their hands in the election squares do not give the necessary response to the insult and attack on Islam and its sacredness by a tiny state like Sweden reveals that their claims are completely false.

Why don't the rulers of the Muslim world, including the Turkish rulers, realise that their feeble condemnations are useless? Why do they continue to try this experience which they have tried and which has not worked? The Holy Qur'an has been torn and burnt for a century, and each time the rulers condemn it. But why do they insist on condemnation and not try a different style when they realise that their condemnation does not work? This insistence is an indication of either stupidity or deep-rooted betrayal, there is no other explanation.

Every day the enemies of Islam, especially the Jews, shed Muslim blood, occupy Islamic countries, and desecrate the Al-Aqsa Mosque, but the traitorous and agent rulers in the Islamic world respond to all this only with condemnation, and sometimes they are tired of condemnation, so that they repel all these outrages with silence. When Muslims, who do not receive the appropriate response from the rulers, stand up and organise demonstrations, the traitorous rulers, fearing that these demonstrations will turn into an uprising against their power, are forced to condemn, albeit reluctantly.

The raison d'être of the treacherous rulers is to ensure the interests of their masters, America and Britain, and to wage proxy wars on behalf of their masters, rather than pursuing the interests of their people and ensuring their security. The fraternal bloodshed in Yemen, Libya, Syria and other Islamic countries is the best proof of this.

India is torturing Muslims in occupied Kashmir, Jews are attacking Muslims and their holy places in Palestine every day, Russia and America are bombing Muslims in Syria, but even to this the agent rulers respond with the strongest condemnatory statements. These condemnatory statements embolden the enemies of Islam even more and they respond to the weak condemnatory statements of the traitorous rulers with even more fierceness and hostility.

Therefore, if Muslims no longer want their holiness to be insulted and their holy book, the Holy Qur'an, to be burnt, they must rise up against these treacherous rulers, overthrow them and establish a system based on their Aqeedah in their place. As long as a system based on their Aqeedah is not established, Muslims will continue to be bloodied, their lands occupied, their sanctities desecrated, their honour violated, and they will continue to leave their lands and embark on dangerous journeys in the vast seas.

If there had been a Khilafah (Caliphate) State, the enemies of Islam would not have dared to attack Muslims or their holy places. When the enemies feel like shedding blood or sucking blood like vampires, they attack the flock they see without a shepherd and slaughter and suck their blood. Therefore, the Khilafah is the only way for Muslims to get rid of the age of being prey and move to the age of hunting. Because the Khilafah is the shepherd of the Muslims. «الإمام راعٍ ومسؤول عن رعيته» The Imam is a shepherd and is responsible for his flock.
