

World Leaders Flocked to Visit the Entity of the Jews to Participate in its Shedding of Muslim Blood

(Translated)

News:

After the American President, the German Chancellor, the Prime Ministers of Britain and Italy, and the President of the European Union visited the Jewish State separately, Al-Jazeera reported that the French President Emmanuel Macron in turn arrived, Tuesday, 24 October, morning, to the Jewish State. It stated, "In a press conference with Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu in Jerusalem on Tuesday, Macron offered "solidarity" in the aftermath of a deadly attack by Hamas on October 7 and said that France and 'Israel' share a "common enemy" in defeating "terrorism"... The French president aims to continue efforts "to avoid a dangerous escalation in the region", the Elysee told AFP... He will propose relaunching a "true peace process", with the aim of creating a viable Palestinian state in exchange for guarantees from regional powers towards "Israel's security"." Comment:

World leaders are heading to the Jewish state after the heroic action carried out by a group of mujahideen in Gaza against the Jewish forces. The world leaders visited as a message of support for the entity of the Jews. They visited express readiness to provide it with various means of oppression against the people of Palestine. They visited to give it another green light to intensify the killing of Muslims in Gaza.

The stances of the world leaders, which are far from diplomatic, come at a time when the peoples of the world are rising up against the crimes of the Jews and denouncing them. The strong sympathy of the common masses for the oppressed people of Palestine, and their participation in massive marches in various world capitals, despite the authorities' warnings to people against supporting the Palestinian side, have all made political analysts question the intuition and acumen of these leaders. The question that arises is what drives these leaders to ignore public opinion in their countries, and insist on their brutal stances alongside the criminal Jewish state, and not even resort to evasion and deception? The answer is still ambiguous until now. However, even if the answer is not completely and accurately revealed due to the lack of accurate, complete information at this time, these stances have clear implications, based on established foundations of analysis, the most important of which are:

1. It is not assumed that the cunning of these leaders enables them to understand matters from all sides. It is a logic that proves nothing. Shaytan is whispering to these leaders to plot against the Muslims. Although his plot is weak as evidenced by the Words of Allah (swt), إِنَّ كَيْدَ الشَّيْطَانِ كَانَ ضَعِيفًا, "Indeed, the plan of Satan is weak" [TMQ Surah An-Nisaa 4:75], his plot is not to be taken lightly. He plotted against the father of humankind, Adam (as), and ensured his expulsion from Paradise. He is able to mislead the people on earth. He will continue until the Day of Resurrection to plot against the servants of Allah (swt) so that they disobey Allah (swt) and follow desires.

The consensus of these leaders on something that Shaytan brought to them, despite their conflicts and conflicting interests, reveals to us the existence of a common interest that either serves them all, or "corrupts" and harms them all such that they want it warded off from them. They cannot reveal it now due to its sensitivity. Moreover, this is because merely mentioning it will frustrate their endeavor.

This is the matter that made them turn their backs on their peoples and the peoples of the entire world, including the Muslim people. This turning their backs is contrary to their democratic principles, that makes ruling in the name of the people and by the will of the people, and makes the government seek to please its people, even if it were through lies and deception. They ignored these principles and did not even resort to diplomacy and flattery. What is strange is that they do not disclose the reason for their ignoring the will and feelings of the people, as well as their supporting the trampling of their claimed humanitarian values. In all, it must be a serious matter for them to take this reprehensible stance.

2. This stance confirms the confidence of these colonialist leaders that the regimes under the rulers of Muslims are fulfilling the dirty role, for which they were appointed and installed. It is to protect the Western order. It is to prevent the Ummah from rebelling against that order, whilst the Ummah supports Muslims and defends the causes of Muslims. They are regimes whose function is no greater than that of an executioner, who threatens people with his whip. The regimes have become skilled and experienced, in carrying out their mission. They have begun to innovate in their methods of oppression, with the acquisition of new financial, technological, informational and intelligence capabilities.

3. The mobilization of aircraft carriers by America, along with Britain, near the coasts of Islamic countries, in the region, indicates that the Western powers are not confident in the ability of these regimes to control the global street in Muslim capitals, in Cairo, Amman, Istanbul, and others. Therefore, they are trying to prevent any possible revolution. It also confirms the awareness of world leaders that the stances of the regimes are nothing more than echoing of the stances of decision-makers in the West. These stances are in stark contrast to the stances of the Ummah, which shakes whenever any part of its body is afflicted.

Muslims in various countries of the Islamic world must consolidate their confidence in their Deen, themselves, and their Ummah. They must disavow their rulers and regimes who do not represent them. They must be confident that they are a resolute player, who cannot be underestimated, in the international scenario. It is only a matter of time before this player is able to shoot at the goal freely.

The Ummah must now rally around the true political leaders, among them, the dawah carriers in Hizb ut Tahrir. They are the true representatives of the Ummah and its Deen. With them, and under their leadership, the Muslims will be freed from the clutches of agent regimes, marching as conquerors of the world with Islam. The Muslims will then teach these world leaders and their foundling, the Jewish monstrous state, lessons that will make them forget the whispers of Satan.

﴿وَقُلْ اَعْمَلُوا فَسَيَرَى اللّٰهُ عَمَلَكُمْ وَرَسُولُهُ وَالْمُؤْمِنُونَ وَسَتُرَدُّونَ اِلَىٰ عَالِمِ الْغَيْبِ وَالشَّهَادَةِ فَيُنَبِّئُكُمْ بِمَا كُنْتُمْ تَعْمَلُونَ﴾

“Say, “Do as you will. Your deeds will be observed by Allah, His Messenger, and the believers. And you will be returned to the Knower of the seen and unseen, then He will inform you of what you used to do.”” [TMQ Surah At-Tawba 9:105]
