

Disbelieving Countries and Traitors of the Ummah are Together in the War against the Muslims

News:

Internet Agency “Sputnik” reported that on 7th of November 2016 the Chinese and Tajikistan government ratified an agreement on mutual extradition of persons suspected of committing crimes. According to the agreement the citizens of one of the two countries can be immediately extradited, if requested by one of the parties.

“This agreement meets our friendly relations, it is an outstanding example of cooperation between China and Tajikistan,” – it is said in a press release of the National People’s Congress of China.

Comment:

Rahmon’s regime is no longer just fighting against Islam in Tajikistan, and is ready to assist the Chinese authorities in their fight against Muslims in occupied Eastern Turkestan (now Xinjiang Uighur Autonomous District).

Why does the godless China need an extradition treaty with Tajikistan? The fact is that today a huge number of ethnic Uighurs - Muslims of Eastern Turkestan live in Tajikistan. And it is no secret that the most Uighurs who fled their homeland, did this to save their religion from the most brutal murders and persecutions by the Chinese authorities.

Thus, this agreement will help to return the Eastern Turkestan Muslims, accused of separatism, to the Chinese disbelievers to continue repressions against them. And tyrant Rahmon is delighted to assist the Chinese authorities in all these crimes.

Recall that Rahmon’s regime, in turn, is also making efforts to return Islamic activists, who fled the country because of religious and political persecution, to Tajikistan. For example, during the visit of Minister of Foreign Affairs of Turkey in Dushanbe on 21st of October 2016, Rahmon called on the Turkish side to extradite the residents of Tajikistan, calling them extremists. In addition, in October 2016 according to Russian Minister of Internal Affairs’ words it became known, that “in 2015, Russia and Tajikistan exchanged information in respect of 992 persons suspected of being involved in terrorist and extremist organizations”.

Disbelieving colonizers and tyrant-rulers, imposed on Muslims, are fighting together against the revival of Islam, helping and supporting each other in all their crimes. And all this will continue until the second righteous Khilafah (Caliphate) is reestablished on the method of Prophethood, until the tyrants of the Ummah are overthrown from their thrones, until the Muslims’ defender in the face of a single Khaleefah (Caliph) appear as was said by the Messenger of Allah (saw):

«إنما الإمام جنة يقاتل من ورانه ويتقى به»

“The Imam is a shield, behind whom you fight and protect yourself” (Muslim).
