

Thunderstorm that does not bring even a drop of rain

News:

President of Turkey Recep Erdogan said that Ankara oversees the situation with compliance of Crimean Tatars rights in Crimea that was occupied by Russia.

During his speech in NATO Parliamentary Assembly, he claimed: "Territorial integrity of Ukraine is invariable for us. We oversaw and always oversee the situation with compliance of Crimean Tatars rights in Crimea". (Source: <http://www.segodnya.ua/>)

Comment:

This is not the first time when Erdogan uses such a rhetoric. Similarly to the situation in Crimea, Erdogan and his team "oversee the situation with rights of Palestinian people". Erdogan declared many sharp statements and even threats to occupation authorities of the Jewish entity. Although, the only thing that changed since then is a growth in economical ties between Turkey and so-called "Israel".

We see same the treatment towards Syrian people that are killed by its "president". Erdogan made very sharp statements towards tyrant Assad, but Syrian people had received no real help till now. Courage of Commander in Chief of Turkish army was enough only to save the tomb of Suleyman Shah in Syria and suppression of Kurdish brigades. The help from their brothers in Turkish army is only dream of Syrian people.

Despite grow of Turkish economy, Syrian refugees continue to live in terrible conditions. They are undesirable foreigners for Turkish authorities. Turkish government considers them only as a tool that can be used to blackmail EU in order to obtain political and economical gratifications.

In such a historical moment Turkey actively repairs its ties with Russia government, which is a direct assistant of Assad in killing civilian Syrians. From one side Erdogan arranges ties with criminal Russian authorities, that suppress Crimean Tatars, from other side he claims that his government oversees situation with their rights in Crimea.

Analysing all abovementioned statements and actions of Erdogan we can conclude one of two options:

1. Recep Erdogan may be a person that suffers from Dissociative Identity Disorder (DID). This illness is defined in Wikipedia as follows: "extremely rare form of mental disorder, which results in double identity. It looks like there are several identities in body of one person.
2. Recep Erdogan is a clear liar, that blatantly lies not only to Turkish people, but to whole Islamic world, whose informal leader he tries to become.

Obviously, second option is the only true one. Such behavior of rulers is not something new in modern history of Islam and Muslims. Allah (swt) warned as about such people when He revealed in Quran the following ayah:

﴿وَكَذَلِكَ جَعَلْنَا فِي كُلِّ قَرْيَةٍ أَكَابِرَ مُجْرِمِيهَا لِيَمْكُرُوا فِيهَا وَمَا يَمْكُرُونَ إِلَّا بِأَنْفُسِهِمْ وَمَا يَشْعُرُونَ﴾

"And thus We have set up in every town great ones of its wicked people to plot therein. But they plot not except against their ownelves, and they perceive (it) not".
