Danish Minister's Attacks on Islam and Hizb ut Tahrir Expose their Cultural Poverty

Hizb ut Tahrir's latest leaflet on the government's discriminatory ghetto plan got both the Minister of Justice and the Minister of Integration to rush ferociously to their keyboards, on 19-03-2018, to demonstrate once again their hopelessly low level and their cultural bankruptcy in a populist attempt to score cheap points.

Both openly attacked Islam, as the Minister of Justice attempted to use Sharia as a scolding word in his degrading comment on Islam's ideals in a Facebook post. The Minister of Integration, known as the government's vulgar fighting dog, tried, with her usual primitivism, to mock the Quran on her Facebook page.

That Sharia is the ideal, and that the ultimate truth exists in the Quran, is not only Hizb ut Tahrir's conviction. It is the unwavering conviction of all Muslims until the Day of Judgment. Therefore, the pathetic attacks of the ministers are partly an expression of dazzling hatred towards Islam and extreme arrogance, and partly intellectual incompetence when faced with the thoughts of Islam.

In a completely unmasked lie, the Minister of Integration claims that Muslims are not demonized as long as they learn the Danish language, work and refrain from crime! This comes from a minister whose office has been characterized by systematic breaches of the law and whose prime minister has become synonymous with abuse of office.

It is unclear whom the minister is trying to fool here, when she, as a representative of the government, on national television, recently declared Islam as the problem, when young Muslims are not allowed have to have intimate relations with the opposite sex (outside of marriage), just as she has made demonization of Islam and Muslims her abominable trademark and her raison d'etre.

The government ministers confirm and emphasize the message in Hizb ut Tahrir's latest leaflet, when they fail to respond to its content, but rather sort to low populism, which even reveals the lie of the liberal values. This desperate political course is a dangerous loser-course for the foundations of society, which will only make Muslims safeguard their Islamic identity even more!

We, in Hizb ut Tahrir, guarantee that we will never be silent about the totalitarian policies directed against Muslims in this country, as well as the falsehood of the Western ideals, which the politicians are undermining in their visionless struggle against Islam.
