Hizb ut Tahrir / Morocco congratulates the Islamic Ummah on the Blessed Eid Al-Fitr

(Translated)

Allahu Akbar Allahu Akbar Allahu Akbar,

Hizb ut Tahrir / Morocco congratulates the entire Muslim Ummah and the people of Morocco especially on Eid Al-Fitr.

May Allah accept your fasting, your prayers, your Qiyam, and all your other acts of worship, and May Allah make us and you from those freed from hellfire in this month.

Once again, our rulers do not want our joy to be complete, so that our people in Morocco will break up their fast with their brothers in the rest of the Muslim countries, because the unity of the Muslims, although in such a case, frightens them and give them sleepless nights. They and their master are only pleased to see the Muslims divided in all matters. Let them dream, they are mistaken, the old and young, even children in Muslim countries are calling for the unity of the Muslims and are aware that salvation can only be achieved by the allegiance of one imam and the breaking of the abhorrent borders instilled by colonialism in the body of the Islamic Ummah, so that the Ummah will be reunited once again and stands as the firm building in the face of its enemies and cut off their influence over our lands and even carry Islam to their homes, a message of guidance and light.

O Muslims

If Ramadhan has left us, then the Lord of Ramadhan does not leave. Do not waste the good deeds of Ramadhan, and stay firm on the acts of worship, and do not return to sins; work for the Ummah, do not let your individual acts of worship distract you from the work for your Ummah. And the most favourable act to your Lord is to work to make the word of Islam the highest and give victory to His Deen. You are aware that this will only be if the Muslims have a political entity, a state that implements Shariah and protects Muslims. So work with those who vow themselves to this great good, follow them, and be their help and support, and Allah is with you and will not leave your work unrewarded.

Allahu Akbar, Allahu Akbar, Allahu Akbar, Wa Lillah Alhamd
