

Press Release

It is the Tenure of the Oppressive Democratic System, not that of the Army Chief in itself, that Ensures our Ruin

Whether General Bajwa remains as army chief or not, destructive and humiliating colonialist slavery will not be sent home, in the aftermath of the current, cheap power play. The polluted well will never be cleaned, no matter how much water is drawn, until the rotting corpse of colonialism is removed from within it. Colonialist-serving agents all begin their tenures with the opportunity to liberate the Ummah from the shackles of ruling by kufr, by re-establishing the Khilafah (Caliphate), thwarting the colonialist plans. Instead, they willingly serve out tenures in servitude to both Trump and Modi. General Bajwa and Imran Khan will be remembered as the US's hired facilitators in Afghanistan and those who handed over Occupied Kashmir to Modi cheaply. They have betrayed the Ummah, seeking to please those who fight her Deen and earning the wrath of Allah (swt) by their tongues and hands. Whenever he is sent home, General Bajwa would be buried in the dustbin of history, alongside other colonialist-serving democrats and dictators.

The West's destructive neocolonialist system does not depend on faces, but on the fact that human-beings are sovereign, making legal what Allah (swt) has forbidden and illegal what Allah (swt) has obliged. Whether it is presidential or parliamentary democracy, the betrayal, loot and plunder of the resources of the Ummah, is a given. General Ayub Khan handed three rivers to India as a gift, Bhutto and General Yahya Khan surrendered East Pakistan and General Zia compromised Siachen, whilst Nawaz and General Musharraf abandoned Kargil. Successive sovereign civilian and military leaderships surrender Pakistan's economy to the IMF for dollars. The judiciary remains in the custody of the oppressive British colonialist law, whilst the education system of Lord Macaulay corrupts the minds of Pakistan's future generation. The sovereign civilian and military leaderships are agents of the West's world order that emerged in the 1940's, working now under the colonialist tool, the United Nations, to weaken the Ummah through division into small entities, ensuring Western colonialist dominance. Whosoever emerges as a viceroy for the colonialists will neither move the Muslim armies to liberate Masjid Al-Aqsa and Occupied Kashmir, nor reject the hegemony of the US dollar and interest-based colonialist loans. Only the re-establishment of the Khilafah (Caliphate) on the Method of Prophethood will ensure the abolition of the colonialist system based on nation states, burying all facets of neo-colonialism, whilst working immediately to unify the current Muslim states as a single immensely powerful state for all Muslims, restoring the Ummah to her deserved status as the leadership for all humankind.

Thus, Hizb ut Tahrir calls upon the sincere officers of Pakistan's armed forces to reject the cheap power politics that has nothing but evil in store for the Ummah and her Deen. Instead, it is upon them to grant Nussrah to Hizb ut Tahrir for re-establishing real change. Let them consider that Saad Bin Muaadh (ra) gave Nussrah to RasulAllah (saaw), laying waste to the plan of Abdullah Bin Ubay to come to power, whilst ending the era of insecurity, poverty and political infighting. It was the Nussrah that granted Islam a state that shook the world order, overwhelming the world's two major powers within a decade. So who will be the Saad (ra) of today, granting dignity to our Deen and relief for our Ummah, thereby elevating his status and rank before Allah (swt)?
