On the Lines of the Turkish Regime in the North, Step by Step Has the Jordanian Regime in the South Unmasked its True Face?

(Translated)

On the impact of the shock of the people of Syria, due to the unmasking of Erdogan's regime and its disgraceful role in surrendering Aleppo, and in the charged atmosphere of hatred on all those who let down the people of Syria. Regimes, rulers and leaders of the factions, the Jordanian regime presented its new known relationship with the tyrant Bashar's regime. In a statement by the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff of the Jordanian army, Lt. Gen. Mahmoud Freihath, for the British BBC channel, on Friday, 30/12/2016, where he said: "We from the beginning of the Syrian crisis never acted against President Bashar al-Assad's regime in Syria ... our relations with the regime (Syria) is still open ... our borders are still open ... diplomatic relations until now continue."

Lt. Gen. Freihath stressed that the Jordanian army waits for the control of its Syrian counterpart on Daraa for it to open the border. He has also ruled out the reopening of the border crossings between Jordan and Syria currently, asserting that "taking such a step will first require the regular Syrian regime troops control of Daraa region, the restoration of the crossings in Nasib, and securing the road to Damascus from terrorist enclaves". Freihath justified that the arming and training of the factions is not for fighting the regime, so, he stressed that the "tribal army" of the Syrian opposition, which has been trained in Jordan will "fight ISIS, and not the Syrian regime."

Our people in the southern area in Horan knew about the wounded who die on the Jordanian regime crossings from time to time, because it does not allow them to enter for treatment in hospitals despite the critical situation, on grounds of their papers being incomplete.

Our people in Horan knew about their sons, who the Jordanian regime pulled them from training centers and tried to force them into the border city of Al-Qusayr to fight Daesh according to their expression. As our people in Horan are aware of the status of the camps of their brothers under the Jordanian regime and of their harassment, and the harsh living conditions that resemble to a great extent the conditions of large detention centers.

All this our people in Horan has known, but what was not in the calculation of our people, that the audacity of the Jordanian regime would reach the extent of declaring these public statements without shame from Allah, His Prophet and His servants, and brazenly revealing its position of standing by the side of the butcher Bashar's regime; and that what it falsely claimed over the past years of standing by the people of Syria is only to deceive and mislead. It had pounded our ears with Iran and its malicious role in the region, while it stands by the side of the regime, Iran's allies and its associates...

O People of Ash-Sham:

It is not strange what unfolds to you every day of the passed positions of the neighboring countries of letting you down after they deafened your ears of granting victory to you and standing by your side, but you soon discover their deception and misleading.

Today, O our people in Ash-Sham, you are in the camp of your faith on your own, and the camp of hypocrisy around you gather all the criminal regimes and all the Kaffir countries, and gathered bodies, organizations and leaders who have sold their religion. So, by Allah, you have no other than to hold to the rope of Allah, in word and action. And by Allah, for you to win in the two abodes, in this world and Hereafter, you have but to assure the company of Allah to you. Allah will not be with you until you believe in Him by your moving to uphold His Word and His Deen. So, stand firm on His Deen and be patient on the road to victory. By Allah, not the lack of your tricks or the abundance of your enemy's hardware and weaponries prevents granting His victory to you and making you triumph over them. But your enemy have paved your path with treachery and deception to distract you from your objective, so seek from within yourselves an honest, sincere and aware leadership to lead you in obedience to Allah, to your glory and the glory of your Deen. Gather around it and hold on together, adhering to Allah and His method, for the hour of victory has approached if you patiently persevere. Victory is but an hour of patient perseverance, and Allah will most certainly aid those who aid His cause; for, verily, Allah is Most Powerful, Almighty.

O Militant Factions: You saw with your own eyes the influence of the dirty political money coming from behind the border, supporters' money, and you observed how it controls the factions' decision, and how it pledges it and puts it in the face of its people and their interests. And makes them stand the positions of humiliation and shame after the positions of the glory of Jihad and the positions of victory and liberation. Your remedy is to tighten your ranks on Allah's command and unite yourselves to fight in the cause of Allah under the political leadership from your Ummah, fearful to Allah and conscious of Him, knowing its path which Allah has ordained to you and marched by the Prophet, peace be upon him, until he established Islam, which had arrived to you. We your brothers in Hizb ut Tahrir, the frontrunner that does not lie to its people, we were trustworthy advisors for you, and we were truthful to you in what we have warned you from, and we are truthful to you in what we are inviting you to. We invite you to adopt the "The Draft Constitution of the Khilafah State" which we prepared, and that you give the political leadership to Hizb ut Tahrir, so you march with it in pleasing Allah (swt). Do not fear for the sake of Allah the blame of anyone as long as you walk on the path of jihad truthfully and faithfully. And Allah is with you and will never deprive you of the reward of your deeds, and the best outcome is for the righteous.
